Flash Alert: Closing Out for a Quick 20% Gains in 2 Months

While we are selling this two-thirds position for essentially zero return, we did sell our initial one-third position for a 54% gain, so net net, this trade scored us nearly 20% returns in just 2 months – which, annualized, is about 120% returns, so we're very happy with this trade (even though it didn't pan out exactly as expected).
